STROLLERS TO GO ON EASTERN TRIP FRIDAY, APRIL 10

Present Play at Harlan, Pineville and at Lynch

TOUR WESTERN KY.

Will Have Private Dining, Pullman, Baggage Cars

This year the Stroller Dramatic Club of the university is planning a more extensive program than has been attempted by this organization. The past six years have seen the expansion of the itinerary from playing at the local theatres to trips to Harlan, Pineville, Middlesboro, Maysville, Richmond, Mt. Sterling, Frankfort, Georgetown and Cynthiana. This year a new route in western Kentucky has been added.

Equipped with their own private dining car, pullman and baggage cars, the Strollers will leave on the night of April 10 for Pineville. April 11 will be "Stroller Day" in Pineville and the whole city will give a royal welcome to the cast and crew.

A dance will be given after the performance of "Fifty-Fifty" on the night of April 11. The performers will spend Easter Sunday in Pineville and a motor trip will be planned for them for Sunday afternoon.

They next play in Harlan, on April 13, under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club. A dance is also being planned for the visitors in Harlan. All of the university students from Pineville will be at home for the Easter vacation and will assist in entertaining the Strollers.

Lynch, another city played by the Strollers for the first time, has invited the Strollers to play there.

The club will entrain again on April 20 for their western trip, arriving in Owensboro on April 21, where they are to be entertained at the country club in the afternoon. Mr. Foust, principal of the Owensboro high

LIBRARY OF LAW BUYS NEW BOOKS

Has Official Reports of All Except Eight States

Miss Clara White, librarian of the College of Law, has announced that the library has recently purchased the official reports of the states of Texas, North Carolina and Virginia. This purchase gives the library a complete set of the reports of all the states with the exception of eight, and in these eight states the library has the complete sets after 1865.

The library has also purchased a complete set of the Columbia Law views of the country ETAIN HRS Review, one of the leading law magazines of the country. The addition of this set further strengthens the collection of law journals which is now larger than that of any law school in the south. The complete list is as follows:

Complete Reviews: Harvard, Michigan, Illinois (Northwestern University), Illinois (University of Illinois), Texas, Oregon, Wisconsin, Boston, Minnesota.

Cornell Law Quarterly, Missouri Law Series, Iowa Law Bulletin, Nebraska Law Bulletin, Kentucky Law Journal, Columbia Law Review, Virginia Law Review 1921-24; Yale Law Journal 1921-24; Pennsylvania Law Review 1919-24; W. Virginia Law Quarterly 1922-23; California Law Review 1922-24; Virginia Law Register 1923-24; Marquette Law Review 1920-24; American Bar Association Reports 1920-24 inclusive.

These reviews are being referred to increasingly by courts in their decisions of cases, and are a valuable critical summary of disputed propositions of law.

Through the efforts of the personnel of the University R. O. T. This distinction was achieved last week when 60 percent of the Kentucky military unit subscribed to the building of this stadium.

The Fort Benning stadium was begun in 1924 and the first sections were completed with the subscriptions from the infantry stationed there. Word was received last week by Col.

LOCAL MUSIC FRAT BECOMES NATIONAL

"THE ENCHANTED COTTAGE" IS BEST PLAY YET OFFERED BY ROMANYTES

Pinero Fable is Cleverly Presented by Able Cast Under the Direction of Miss Kay and Jack Frume

The Romany Theatre opened its fifth engagement of the subscription season before an enthusiastic house Monday evening, with the presentation of Arthur Wing Pinero's "The Enchanted Cottage." Romany goes are unanimously declaring this production the greatest success that the theatre has achieved. Tonight and Saturday nights are "student nights."

The play, a fable in three acts, is under the direction of Miss Claribel Kay and Mr. Jack Frume, and the beautiful dream scene at the end of the second act is under the direction of Miss Rosette March. The stage setting, which represents the interior of a cottage in Sussex county, England, was designed by Miss Ann Callahan of the Art department. The setting is unusually quaint and artistic, and the lighting scheme aids a great deal in rendering the scene effective.

DRAMATIC CRITIC SPEAKS TO CLUB

Clayton Hamilton Gives Lecture on "Sheridan Cycle"

Mr. Clayton Hamilton, lecturer on dramatic art and literature, spoke before a large audience yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Recreation Room of Patterson Hall, when he was guest of the English Club of the university.

Mr. Hamilton's subject was "The Sheridan Cycle." His address preceded the engagement of Mrs. Fiske, who will present Sheridan's "Rivals" at the Opera House April 9. This production is in commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the original production of "The Rivals."

Mr. Hamilton has been associated with Brander Matthews at Columbia University. For twenty years he has been one of the ablest lecturers in dramatics and has established an international reputation as a lecturer and critic and author.

He has been dramatic critic for "The Forum," "Bookman" and for "Everybody's Magazine." Some of his best known books are "Materials and Methods of Fiction," "Theory of Drama," "Problems of Playwrights." His latest book is "Conversations on Contemporary Drama."

MISS ELLIOTT TALKS TO KENTUCKY GIRLS

"The Joys of Teaching" is Subject of Lecture

Miss Harriett Elliott, of the University of North Carolina, spoke to the women students of the university at the new gymnasium last Friday afternoon at the sixth period on, "The Joys of Teaching."

Miss Elliott pointed out that the most frequent objection to women in the profession is that well-equipped women are forced to work under the supervision of men, often of inferior ability. This condition is being changed rapidly, however, and the number of women principals, superintendents, and heads of departments is increasing rapidly, Miss Elliott said.

NOTICE

Rubbish cans will be placed on all parts of the campus and in all the buildings. Mr. Crutcher, superintendent of buildings and grounds of the university, asks that the students will please throw their waste paper and candy wrappers in them instead of on the ground.

The appearance of the campus can be greatly improved in this way with the cooperation of the students. Their support in this matter is earnestly requested. Let's all help toward the improvement of the campus!

MAJOR GRAHAM WILL BE EDITOR

Employed by S. Shore Press and Baldwin Record

Major Herbert Graham, graduate and former Alumni Secretary of the University of Kentucky, has been made editor of the South Shore Press and the Baldwin Record, suburban publications of New York City.

The South Shore Press was purchased by Colonel Lloyd C. Griscom, former diplomatic representative to England. Colonel Griscom proposes to make this the dominant newspaper of Long Island and plans are already under way for erecting or leasing a large building in which to house one of the most complete printing plants in the country.

The selection of Major Graham for the responsible position as editor is a fitting tribute to his ability as a journalist. After college he worked as a reporter and city editor on several Kentucky dailies and for a short time acted as instructor of journalism at the university. For the last year and a half he has published the Scottish-American, a semi-monthly magazine in New York.

Major Graham is an alumnus of the local chapter of Alpha Delta Sigma, honorary journalistic fraternity.

ENGINEERING CLASS INSPECTS NEW OMNIBUS

Considerable comment was caused last Tuesday morning by the appearance on the campus of a large bus which was brought here by Mr. Lloyd Wells, of Chicago, for demonstration to the Kentucky Utilities Company of Lexington. This bus was brought to the campus for inspection by the students in engineering.

Mr. Wells, a personal friend of Dean Anderson, brought the bus as a representative of the International Harvester Company of Chicago.

KENTUCKY KERNEL TO BE DELIVERED

The Kernel will be delivered to all halls, dormitories, sorority and fraternity houses the 5th and 6th hours each Friday. This is the outcome of continued improvements of the official newspaper of the university. A column of classified ads will appear in this week's paper. This column will be open to all students who wish to place ads therein free of charge and will concern lost, found, or for sale ads.

UNIVERSITY WILL BE INDEPENDENT OF CITY SYSTEM

Main Switchboard to be in Administration Building

BE IN USE BY JUNE 1

Will Connect All Buildings on Kentucky Campus

The University of Kentucky will soon have a private telephone exchange of its own which will connect all buildings on the campus, with the exception of the men's dormitory, with a central switchboard which will be placed in the present location of the Stenographic Bureau on the first floor of the main building. The Stenographic Bureau will be moved to the offices in the southwest corner of the Basketball Building. It is thought that the new system will be ready for operation by June 1.

The main cable comes from the point on Winslow street where the power transmission lines enter the university grounds to the Administration building. From that point connections will be run to all the other buildings on the campus, by means of underground cables. An underground cable will also be run to the Experiment Station, the telephones of which will be controlled by the university exchange. The present exchange of the Experiment Station will be removed. All calls will be handled by the operator at the switchboard in the Administration building.

The cables are being placed at an approximate depth of 27 inches under the ground in three inch orangeburg fibre conduits, encased in concrete. It will make for better service to all departments and will improve the appearance of the campus by doing away with all telephone poles and overhead wiring. The conduits are being laid by the department of Buildings and Grounds of the university. The Fayette Home Telephone Company is laying all the cables and is making the connections in the buildings.

The chart above shows that of the 2,914 living alumni 710 have paid their dues for 1924-25. The dues this year include the Kentucky Kernel and the Alumni Directory. Only three classes have paid up 100 per cent. These three are '75, '77 and '71, which have one member each still living. The classes of '75 and '77 held the record last year. The 38 life members are found in the classes between '88 and '18. The class of 1890 has not advanced beyond 62.5 per cent, its record for last year. No class since 1900 has reached even the 40 per cent mark. Several of the class secretaries between 1900 and 1924 have taken a very active interest in the campaign for membership. The class secretary can not do it all. Every member must "do his bit." What about you?

The next issue will carry the standing of the clubs.

ARE YOU A GOOD ALUMNUS

The American college lack a great deal of strength because many of its alumni confine their interest to memories of their undergraduate days. They feed their loyalty solely upon sentimental reverence for the past. The unfortunate result of this falls upon both the individual and the college. In general, the alumni of the American colleges have little knowledge of educational movements and little realization of their responsibility to their Alma Mater. There is no reason why a man should receive the benefits of a college for four years and thereafter take no interest in the advancement of the institution. The ability of any college to justify its existence in a large way will be greatly increased or seriously curtailed by the degree of willingness of the alumni to seek knowledge of what the function of the college should be, and how its function should be accomplished. Any college which has the intelligent interest and cooperation of its alumni in working out its destiny must of necessity make rapid strides. The days that are gone are gone are cherished recollections. The present should bring to us privileges and claims of a share in the responsibility of our brotherhood.

STROLLERS HAVE MADE CONTRACTS

Strollers Will Visit Pineville, Harlan, Lynch, Owensboro, Bowling Green and Louisville This Month

The Glee Club reports very successful visits to Owensboro, Henderson and Morganfield last week. The alumni in these towns are certainly awake to the joy that comes from contact with present University and student life. They have also secured the Strollers whose dates are as follows: Pineville, April 11; Harlan, April 12; Lynch, April 14; Owensboro, April 21; Bowling Green, April 23, and Louisville, April 24.

Have you seen the Strollers play since you left college? If not, here is your chance, right at home. They are expecting a full house, and we alumni don't want to disappoint them. We would probably be the greater losers.

CATS OPEN BASEBALL SEASON WITH TIGERS THURSDAY

A SNAPPY INFIELD IS COACH'S HOPE IN OPENING GAME

Murphy May Start 'Big' Jess Riffe Against Tigers

TO PLAY MICH.--11TH

Georgetown Will Rely on Hackman to Stop the 'Cats

The Blue and White baseball team will open its 1925 season on April 9 when it matches up with the Tigers of Georgetown College on the latter's field.

The game will be the initial tilt for both teams and as each team is very anxious to start the season with an impressive win, the game should be one of thrills and plenty of action. The Wildcats did not play Georgetown at baseball last year, although the yearling teams of both schools clashed.

Tigers Have Good Battery
Georgetown turns out strong baseball teams and this year should be no exception. In Hackman and Redding the team has one of the strongest collegiate batteries in the state. This pair works well together and may cause the Kentucky sluggers all kinds of trouble before the afternoon's play is done.

Another Tiger whom the 'cats will have to watch, both in the field and at bat, is Bruce Daniels, flashy shortstop. This man, besides being a fast and sure fielder, is one of the strongest hitters on the team.

Coach Murphy has been driving his men hard all week to get them in shape for the trio of difficult games which face the Felines within a week. He is devoting extra time to his pitchers and they are beginning to show both class and forb.

Snappy Infield
The infield is functioning smoothly. Coach Murphy has given the boys plenty of practice on the fundamentals of the inner defense. In the outfield the players are judging the ball more accurately and their throws are becoming more precise every day. Following the Georgetown game, the 'cats will oppose two teams of strong calibre within the lapse of 3 days. On April 11 the Blue and White will be hosts to the University of Michigan nine in the first game of the spring trip of the latter institution. Two days later the 'cats will journey to Louisville and will play the Cardinals of the University of Louisville.

Should they be returned victorious in this set of games, they will have an excellent start toward a winning season.

CLASS TRACK IS IN FULL SWING

Many Aspirants Entered for Intra-mural Honors

An inter-fraternity and inter-class track meet was begun yesterday at the university and will terminate this afternoon. The number of points a man makes will count for his class as well as his fraternity.

Several of the varsity men are competitors in attempts to set new school records and aspiring freshman candidates for the varsity have ventured to gather laurels for '25.

This inter-class event brings out a class spirit and at the same time gives those men a chance to participate who are either ineligible or who fail by a small margin to take honors for themselves or their fraternity.

No rules were laid down to bar any entrant and practically every fraternity organized and sent teams into the tournament hoping to carry off the spoils of victory.

PLEDGES ANNOUNCED

The members of the active chapter are J. K. Roberts, M. A. Gorman, R. K. Flege, William McGehee, William Blackburn, J. L. Long, Glynn Bushart and J. S. Stockhart.

The probable lineup for the Georgetown game will be: Gregg, Vossmeier, Riffe or Samuels, pitcher; Henry or Goodwin, catcher; Captain Reed Miller, first base; Frank Smith, second base; Evans, shortstop; Croft, third base. In the outfield, Murphy will probably have Hughes in left; Arnold in center; John Riffe in right field.

W. C. A. HOLDS YEARLY ELECTION OF ITS OFFICERS

New Executive Staff to Appoint Cabinet Members

READY FOR ACTION

Women's Group Selects Good Material in Leaders

The annual election of officers of the Y. W. C. A. was held last Friday afternoon in the men's gymnasium immediately following the lecture by Miss Elliott. The newly elected officers are: Frances Lee, president; Katherine Kincheloe, vice-president; Dorothy Kerth, treasurer; Virginia Heizer, secretary; Eleanor Smith, undergraduate representative.

The cabinet members, appointed by the executive staff, are: Chairman of social committee, Mary Belle Vaughn; chairman of Bible study work, Georgia Rouse; chairman of the program committee, Corinthe Taylor; chairman of publicity committee, Virginia Boyd; chairman of town girls, Emily Gregory; chairman of sub-cabinet, Beth Huddleston; assistant to secretary, Elizabeth Heffernan; chairman of the membership committee, Margie Smith.

Frances Lee is a junior in the College of Arts and Science, and is a member of the Kappa Delta sorority. The past year she was treasurer of the organization and filled that position capably and efficiently. Katherine Kincheloe was, before election to her present position, chairman of the program committee. She is a junior in the college of Arts and Science.

WOMEN IN A NEW ATHLETIC ASSOC.

Members of National Women's Athletic Societies

The Women's Athletic Association of the University of Kentucky has been granted a membership in the athletic council of American colleges, called the National Association of Women's Athletic Societies.

At a meeting at Patterson Hall on Tuesday at 7 o'clock, the athletic council, composed of leaders in the different sports, and Miss Blanding, passed on the names of 16 girls who played on the basketball teams in the inter-sorority tournament. Eight girls were chosen to compose a team which will be known as the "eight K stars," or the all-university team.

These girls were: Jameson, Snyder, Boyd Hall; Hill, Robison, Georgia Alexander, Town Team; Taylor, Smith Hall; Kerth, Sigma Beta Upsilon; Keifer, North Patterson Hall.

Plans were made for a spring track meet which will take place April 31. Hockey games will be played April 16 and 17.

NOTICE, SENIORS

Seniors who are candidates for degrees in June must go to the office of the Registrar and fill out the application blanks. This must be done at an early date.

TENNIS SQUAD IS HARD AT WORK

Courts Are Being Re-Modeled for Opening of Season

The varsity tennis team of the university has had ideal weather for practice during the past two weeks and is rapidly rounding into mid-season form. Two courts are in continual use each afternoon. New steel backstops have replaced the old wood backstops and the courts are being surrounded by a fence to prevent students walking across them.

Four of the five remaining members from last year's team are practicing daily and appear likely contenders for places on the team. Karl Lewis, the other member of the team of '24 is ineligible due to late registration. The two remaining members of the squad will probably be selected from the following men: Adams, Bobbitt, Reed, Selbinger and A. Lewis. The last named man has shown up exceedingly well.

The candidates for the freshman team reported the first of the week and have strong players in such men as Steele, Chambers, Ebert, Cohen, Salmons and Woodward.

NATIONAL MUSICAL FRAT BIDS ELEVEN

Phi Mu Alpha Holds Annual Pledging Exercises

Phi Mu Alpha, national musical fraternity, pledged eleven men who have demonstrated their quality as musicians, in pledge services held on Sunday of last week.

The pledges are: Professor South, Sergeant John Kennedy of the university faculty; Professor Stables of the Lexington College of Music; and Messrs. George Young, Max Freeman, Lovell Underwood, Lawrence Freeman, Walker Hall, Elmer Leachman, Henry Moore and John R. Beam.

Eligibility depends upon interest in music evidenced by participation in the activities of musical organizations on the campus, and the degree of ability in music.

Phi Mu Alpha is sponsoring the production of "The Messiah," which will be presented the evening of April 30.

Squad May Compete in Big 30-30 Match at Annapolis

The Kentucky R. O. T. C. Rifle Team, one of the strong entrants in the National Collegiate Indoor Shoot, were off to a flying start last week in their matches, scoring 1,958 points out of a possible 2,000 in the prone and sitting positions, an exceedingly high score. Taking this marksmanship as an indication, the Kentucky team has a better chance than any other Corps Area team to win the match.

As was the usual case in all matches during the rifle season, E. T. Bullock was high point man last week and he was followed by Griffith, Richardson, Bobbitt, H. R. Brown, Mills, Rogers, Weems, Forkner and Creech in order. The other five who fired were E. C. Rice, Griffin, Anderson, Travis and Fife. As only the ten highest scores are counted toward a total, the scores of Rice, Griffin, Anderson, Travis and Fife were not counted.

Firing Second Stage

The second stage of firing is going on this week and some nice shots and scores have been made thus far.

There are nine corps areas in the United States and the War Department designated the four highest in each corps area each year to compete in the national shoot. Kentucky, Delaue, Cincinnati and Indiana were highest in the Fifth Corps Area. The University of Kentucky finished second in its regional shoot by defeating Ohio, Indiana, Cincinnati and West Virginia. Last year Kentucky finished third in the meet, which was won by the University of California.

May Go to Annapolis Shoot

The local team will be invited to attend the National Shoulder to Shoulder 30-30 match, over a 600 yard range at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., May 16. The team was invited to compete last year but due to lack of funds was unable to compete in the tourney. This year, however, the competing teams will be compelled to pay only their travelling expenses.

Teams from Yale, Harvard, Michigan, Illinois, Missouri and California will compete and if Kentucky is permitted to attend, she will have a chance to meet teams which she does not meet in other branches of competition.

EASTER

Many centuries ago the greatest miracle of past or future ages was performed. The modern miracles such as the radio, the phonograph and the ability to see through solid objects by means of the X-Ray are infinitely less wonderful than the miracle of the Risen Christ.

Next week all Christendom will celebrate Easter. The beauty and wonder of the Resurrection is heightened when in the spring of the year Nature awakens; the living things of the earth begin to breath anew and one can almost hear the glad cry, "Arise!"

With the advent of Easter each year, humanity takes to itself the glad assurance that there is life, joyous life, eternal life. With the Resurrection of Christ the world was assured that its labors would not be in vain, that there is assurance of the Life after death.

THE VISIT OF DOCTOR LUNN

During the past week the university has been signally fortunate in having as its guest Dr. A. C. Lunn, professor of Applied Mathematics at the University of Chicago. Dr. Lunn was brought here through the instrumentality of the department of Physics for a series of lectures dealing mainly with Relativity and the Einstein Theory.

Seldom it is that the students of the university have had the opportunity of hearing a man of such authority and renown as Doctor Lunn, and his visit here brought to the attention of the university the views of man, than whom none are more preeminent in his field.

In addition to the knowledge that hearing such a man imparts, there is an even greater value received by the undergraduates who are privileged to hear him. It is contact with great minds and great personalities, nearly as much as knowledge itself, that brings inspiration to the student and that strengthens his own devotion to duty. There is an incentive radiated from those that have achieved, stimulating in its effect. William McKinley once said that the ideal university was a log with himself on one end and Mark Hopkins on the other. Personal contact does much to unfurl inspiration and impart knowledge.

KENTUCKY OVER THE TOP

The name of the University of Kentucky will adorn the new stadium at Fort Benning, Georgia, and to cap it all its name will be at the top of the list on which is inscribed the names of the donors who have made possible the erection of the new edifice.

Part of the funds to be used in the building of the stadium are being raised by subscription among students in the various schools of the corps areas of the United States. The University of Kentucky R. O. T. C. was the first to subscribe the initial quota of fifty-one percent, so it earns the privilege of having its name at the top of the scroll on which is carved the names of those who have championed with money and effort the erection of the Fort Benning Stadium.

CLYDE GRAY IS OUTSTANDING IN THE SENIOR CLASS

Will be Graduated from College of Eng. in June

HAS MANY HONORS

Is President of Senior Class; Prominent on the Campus

Clyde S. Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Gray, of Petersburg, Ind., entered the University of Kentucky in the fall of 1921.

He seemed intent on going wrong from the first and entered the college of Engineering. Undismayed, he continued and will be graduated from that college in June.

Not content with one mistake, he waited until his senior year and then took English under Professor Farquhar. On the credit side, however, we find that Clyde earned membership in Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity.

He was destined later to become a solon by election to the Student Council, that now moribund body, in his junior year.

As a law giver, or member of the Student Council, he was, in a way, prepared for further responsibility and this year he was elected president of the Senior Class.

Despite being an engineer and a soldier, Clyde has another side, he is a member of the Triangle social fraternity and is not at all as Cromwellian as would seem, else how could he be among the most popular men in the university?

She's got no sense.

A SOLILOQUY

I am not beautiful, and yet I possess some strange charm which lures them on—poor fools! How many have I lured and crushed I know not. They might see from the fate of others what their fate will be—but they must be shown.

Ah, see. One drays nigh. He stands there, gaping with curiosity. Now he comes closer, incensed with a desire to sip the honey from my lips. I will entice him! With a rush he seizes me in a lingering embrace. Now he lifts his head. The spell is broken. He tries to draw away, but he cannot. He struggles and curses me but I laugh in his face. He strikes at me, but I seize his hand. In terror he turns to flee, but it is too late—he is mine. And so growing weaker he sinks closer, closer until he fairly presses me, for it is so easy just to lie there. And I, Enchantress, seek a new victim.

Who am I? A piece of fly paper.

At least the checker championship is always won on the square.
And that reminds me: the sport writers of the various papers have beenstepping over into this editors realm with some of their choices for the all-tournament teams both boys and girls. If some of their choices can play basket ball—well any way some of the coaches should have sent a letter instead of some of the players—think of all the money and ridicule they could have saved. I champion two players who never were mentioned on any team. Thompson of Crescent Springs was the best girl dribbler in the tournament and would have made an ideal running guard for she was splendid on defense and a good goal shot.

SANFORD'S PASTE

Shearer, back guard on Monticello, is another one overlooked in the boys department. Those that say him play say a real basket ball player—clean and a fighter. I thank you.

MISS CAMPBELL TALKS TO GIRLS

Home Economics Club Entertains With a Tea

Miss Mable Campbell, of the federal board of Vocational Education, lectured at the fifth hour Wednesday to the girls of the Home Economics department. The lecture was given in Room 205 of the Agriculture building, the subject being "Home Economics as a Field for College Trained Women."

Miss Campbell was formerly a member of the staff of the University of Kentucky and has made a great success in her chosen field of federal work. On Wednesday afternoon the Home Economics Club entertained with a tea from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock at the Practice House in honor of Miss Campbell. About 200 guests called during the afternoon.

At the left of this group is Lieut. J. A. Macready, U. S. A., former holder of the world's altitude record. Just behind the propeller you can see the G-E turbine supercharger which kept the Liberty motor running in the thin air, six miles high.

Over the mountain by a mile

Year after year, plucky explorers try to climb Mount Everest, the world's highest peak, 29,141 feet high.

With a G-E supercharger feeding air at sea-level pressure to the engine, an airplane pilot can go far higher. Lieut. Macready has reached 34,509 feet over Dayton, Ohio. He would have soared over Mount Everest with more than a mile to spare!

The tasks attempted for centuries in almost every form of human endeavor have been conquered with the aid of electricity, with more than a mile to spare.

The impossible today will be accomplished by men and women now in college. The scientist and engineer are doing their share. It remains for men and women entering upon their life's work to profit by the new opportunities that are constantly appearing in every profession and vocation in the land.

The supercharger is a turbine air compressor, which revolves as fast as 41,000 times a minute—the highest speed ever developed by a commercial machine. It is designed and made by the General Electric Company, which also builds the big turbines that supply electric light and power.

If you are interested in learning more about what electricity is doing, write for Reprint No. AR391 containing a complete set of these advertisements.

Hobbs to the effect that the R. O. T. C. units of the United States would be given an opportunity to assist in the completion of the stadium, and asked for twenty-five cents from each student in the Reserve Officers Training Corps.

Colonel Hobbs, who spent four years at Fort Benning before coming to the university, and who was in charge of the Kentucky subscriptions, sent a telegram to officers at Fort Benning stating that the local unit had already made a 60 percent subscription, and would probably make it 80 percent in a few days.

The donations to this fund was made through the various instructors in the Military department and approximately 700 students.

The following letter was received by Col. Hobbs in reply to his telegram announcing that Kentucky had "gone over":

"Headquarters of the Infantry School
Office of the Commandant

"Fort Benning, Ga., March 26.

"My dear Colonel Hobbs:

"Your splendid telegram received yesterday. Your splendid unit was the first to respond and I wish to assure you of our hearty appreciation for the fine spirit of co-operation given us by the University of Kentucky in this matter.

"Many thanks and with best wishes believe,

Sincerely yours,

Louis P. Wood."

STROLLERS TO GO ON EASTERN TRIP

schools, Mr. Miller Holland, president of the university Alumni Club there, and Mr. Lewis, are the enthusiastic backers of the Strollers in Owensboro.

April 22, "Fifty-Fifty" will be presented in Henderson under the auspices of the Elks Club. The play will be given at the Grand Theater, followed by a dance at the Elks Home.

From Henderson the players go to Bowling Green, where a record performance is expected. Mr. Preston Cherry, an alumnus of the university, and an old Stroller, has made arrangements for the presentation of the play in Bowling Green, and the Normal school has also given its enthusiastic support.

The final presentation on the western trip will be made in Louisville on April 24. An added feature of the Louisville trip will be that the Strollers will have an opportunity to give their performance before the K. E. A. Conference which will be in session in Louisville at that time.

Mr. N. Gray Rochester, president of the Louisville Alumni Club, with Messrs. Leo Sandman, Ed Gregg, and Dave Campbell, all Kentucky alumni, will help put over the presentation.

After the completion of the western trip, the Strollers will present their play in Lexington for one night only, but from present indications this will be the biggest performance ever given in the history of the organization. The season will close with performances in one or two of the central Kentucky cities, probably in Frankfort and Cynthiana.

Under the able management of the present staff, of which Mr. James Darnell is president, the year 1925 promises to be the most successful ever played by the Strollers, and from present indications, "Fifty-Fifty" is one of the greatest hits ever made by the Strollers.

"THE ENCHANTED COT-TAGE" IS BEST PLAY

talkative, vivacious mother of young Bashforth, is admirably carried by Miss Margot Semmes, the guest in Lexington of Miss Betsy Cloud. This is Miss Semmes' first appearance at the Romany and her native talent, her training, and her personal attractiveness have won for her great honors. The part of Mr. Rupert Smallwood, her husband, is ably handled by H. B. Carpenter.

Churchill Newcomb, in the character part of Major Hillgrove, the blind friend and counsellor of the Bashforths, gives a most natural and capable interpretation.

Miss Ann Callihan, acting head of the Art department, charmed the audience in her portrayal of Mrs. Minnett, the witch-like housekeeper at the cottage. Her every movement commands the attention of her audience, and in her explanation of the disillusioned couple that "the homeliest of mortals are beautiful to those who love them," we feel a magnetic attraction in her clever interpretation.

The part of the Reverend Corsellis, the meek young rector of the village, is played by Luke Woolridge, a freshman in the college of Engineering. Miss Margaret Woolridge, his sister, also a student at the university, appeared as his young wife, the mother of seven children. Their character sketching is delightful.

George Taylor makes his first appearance at the Romany in the part of Rigg.

The shadow characters, who appear in the beautiful dream scene at the end of the second act are: First married couple, Miss Ida Kenney Risque and Mr. James Cogar; second married couple, Miss Elizabeth Pendleton and Mr. William Pettit; third married couple, Miss Judith Farrell and Mr. Leonard Brooker. Miss Callihan also appears in this scene as the witch.

The setting for the play is considered the most striking and artistic that the Romany has represented. Miss Callihan was assisted in the carrying out of the details by Henry Harper, Robert Kay, Grant Willis, Guy Briggs and William Burks.
